

Appeals and Resit Procedures

At Storyy Training, we use EPA providers from different organisations which all have their own appeals and resit policies. All these policies can be requested but can also be found by learners in the Resource Centre on Aptem under the tag Storyy Training.

During the apprentice's time on their course, their employer will have requested their course and their EPA provider at the start when the apprentice is being enrolled. When the apprentice is at gateway, they will attend a gateway meeting where the Tutor and EPA Provider will go through the appeals and resit procedures, this will also be sent to the employer and apprentice after their meeting, as well as be visited in the gateway review on their learning plan.

For resits where the apprentice fails to show for the EPA please refer the written agreement for the employer where there may be additional costs.
